

Must Do Summer Homework

- Read I Lived on Butterfly Hill by Marjorie Agosin. It is a wonderful and long book- 454 pages, so I recommend giving yourself a reading schedule for the summer so that you stay on track (roughly 45 pages per week)

Suggested Due Date	Pages to read (roughly 45 per week)
June 17	Pages 1-46
June 24	Pages 47- 91
July 1	Pages 92- 139
July 8	Pages 139- 184
July 15	Pages 185- 228
July 22	Pages 229- 273
July 29	Pages 274- 318
August 5	Pages 319-363
August 12	Pages 364- 408
August 19	Pages 408- end

- Summer math work from Damon
- Have fun! Rest! Adventure! Go outside!

May Do Summer Checklist

Below are 20 ideas for what to do this summer if you feel bored and are looking for something to do. If you actually complete at least ten of them and bring this list the first week of school, you'll get to enjoy an ice cream sandwich the first week of school. Your parents should initial each one after you do it. Good luck!

- Pitch and sleep in a tent in your backyard or living room
- Have a water balloon fight
- Make homemade mini pizzas
- Look at the stars and find the big dipper
- Bake cookies, eat some, and take the rest to your neighbors
- Have a living room dance party with your whole family (each choose two songs for the playlist)
- Write a letter to your teacher next year (1218 23rd Avenue SF, CA 94122)
- Build an epic fort
- Do an egg toss; start one step away from a friend and take one step back with each toss (do this outside and with permission)
- Climb a tree
- Write a rap or song about your family (and email it to me-tgoodkin@sfschool.org)
- Using nothing but chalk, the sidewalk, and a ball, create a game and play it with someone
- Draw three self-portraits with your non-dominant hand
- Go to a the library and ask a librarian to pick you out a book (then read it)
- Call a grandparent/aunt/uncle/cousin older than you and ask them to tell you what 5th grade was like for them
- Make two different paper airplanes and race them against each other
- Learn how to play solitaire
- When the clouds are interesting, lie on the ground for at least 20 minutes and see how many different images you can find in them
- Pop popcorn in a pot
